Cheap Edition, complete for 6s.

St. Paul, an Oratorio by Felix Mendelssohn Bartholdy.

The best monument to the memory of a great man, is that which is erected by his own genius in the works he leaves behind him, and by which he continues to live in the estimation of his fellow-men. As the most effectual contribution to this, his best monument, and to spread his fame as widely as possible, by enabling even the humblest admirer to possess his greatest work; it has been determined to publish a cheap copy of Mendelssohn's "ST. PAUL," similar to the admired editions of Handel and Haydn's Oratorios.—The First Number was issued on the 1st of February, 1848, consisting of 16 pages in a neat wrapper, price Sixpence, and the publication will be continued Monthly until completed in TWELVE NUMBERS, so that the whole work may be purchased for 6s., or bound in cloth, 6s. 6d. Mr. VINCENT NOVELLO has kindly undertaken to revise the present Edition.

NOVELLO'S CHEAP MUSICAL CLASSICS. This work which is progressing in public estimation, and has already reached the 53rd Volume, has been the means of placing within general reach many fine works, the prices of which had prevented many from possessing them. They vary in cost from 2s. to 8s. They are engraved in the best style, in longway-music quarto-size, in vocal score, with an accompaniment for the Organ or Pianoforte. The Alto and Tenor Parts are put in the G cleff, and each Volume contains one work complete in itself.

Miss Sabilla Novello's Philharmonic Class will be resumed January 28th. Ladies desirous of becoming Members are requested to apply to Miss Sabilla Novello, Craven Hill Cottage, Bayswater; or at the London Sacred Music Warehouse, 69, Dean Street, Soho; where all particulars may be obtained.

Philharmonic Class, under the direction of Miss Sabilla Novello. The object of this Class is to afford an opportunity to Amateur Singers of improving themselves in the correct and polished Singing of concerted Music. Many Young Ladies, proficient in solo Singing, are unable to undertake a part in concerted Music; but it is hoped that those Amateurs who join the Philharmonic Class will be able to overcome this difficulty. The Music selected for study will be purely classical, and will consist principally of Pieces for two, three, or more female voices. The Class will meet once every week. The lesson will be of an hour's duration, a short portion of which time will be devoted to reading Music at sight. As the number of Students is strictly limited, Ladies desirous of becoming Members of the Philharmonic Class are requested to apply early to Miss Sabilla Novello, Craven Hill Cottage, Bayswater.—Terms of Subscription, Two Guineas per Quarter.—A Private Apartment has been prepared for the reception of the Class at the London Sacred Music Warehouse, 69, Dean Street, Soho Square.

Super-royal Quarto size, price One Shilling.
